Coaches Comments: The Elmwood-Murdock Knights hung on to defeat the Omaha Brownell-Talbot Raiders 21-13 Friday night in Elmwood. The Knights struck first in the 1st quarter on an 11 yard pass from Brandon Frates to Nick Goudie. I thought Frates had an excellent night throwing the football. Frates was 11-16 passing for 256 yards and one TD. Brandon got his feet set and used good mechanics on our sprint outs and bootlegs. Goudie and Gary Ritnour had big nights catching the football as each player had over 100 yards receiving. Our offensive line did a better job this week protecting our quarterback. I thought Tyler Oehlerking and Austin Drueke got us some tough yards running the football allowing us to open up the passing game. Defensively I thought our team executed well. Brownell-Talbot has an excellent fullback in Jonathan Vrana and we held him to 30 yards rushing. Zach Dwyer and Austin Drueke filled hard from their inside linebacker positions. Our outside linebackers Caleb Scattergood and Gary Ritnour did a nice job stringing out the option and giving our pursuit time to get to the perimeter. Nick Goudie came up from his free safety position and made some nice tackles on the pitch. The Knights travel to Fremont on Friday to take on state ranked Archbishop Bergan. Game time is 7:00 p.m.
