Coaches Comments: The Elmwood-Murdock Knights defeated the Conestoga Cougars 48-0 Friday night. Mikkel Christian started the scoring for the Knights in the 1st quarter with a school record 42 yard field goal. Christiansen also kicked 6 out of his 8 kickoffs out of the endzone and was a perfect 5/5 on his PAT's. Christiansen, a foreign exchange student from Denmark, has become a great asset when it comes to field position. Mikkel is very talented as a kicker and also works very hard in practice at his craft. Mikkel has fit in well on the team and is well liked by his peers. He's a lot of fun to be around. I was pleased with our offensive and defensive lines. We knew that would be the difference in the game. The Knights rushed for 271 yards and the defense shut down the Cougar offense. We still have a lot to work to do. We need to be more consistent on both sides of the ball and reduce our number of penalties. The Knights host Weeping Water next Friday night in Elmwood. Game time is 7:00 p.m
