Coaches Comments: The Elmwood-Murdock Knights defeated the Humboldt-Table Rock-Steinauer Titans 42 – 0 Thursday night in Elmwood. The Knights defense played very well holding HTRS to 146 yards of total offense. Our defensive line did a nice job controlling the line of scrimmage. Tanner Bornemeier, Quintin Baumeister, Alex Koehler, Matt Campbell, and Christian Jones controlled their gaps and played off blocks well. Offensively, the Knights rolled up 464 total yards including 306 yards on the ground. Dalton Lindburg led the offense with 123 yards on 13 carries and scored 4 TD's. Brandon Frates had a good night throwing the ball. He completed 8/12 passes for 158 yards. The Knights qualify for the state playoffs for the 14th consecutive year. Elmwood-Murdock will travel to Utica Centennial for a 1st round contest scheduled for Thursday, October 31. Game time TBD.
